

Our Patient & Family Advisory Council

Our PFAC currently consists of 10 cancer patients/family members who provide input and feedback on the research priorities and programs of the Cuthbert Lab.

The goal of our PFAC is to improve the health and health outcomes of cancer patients and their experience in the health care system.

Interested in joining? We're looking for 2 more members!

Roles & Responsibilities

Work with researchers to ensure the patient and family experience of cancer are consistently understood and considered

Include a patient/family voice to ensure research activities are patient focused

Provide insight and feedback for research programs

Contact us at christie.farrer@ucalgary.ca